

JTES

Please indicate how often you have experienced the following events in the course of your job over the past year. In other words, think about the time frame within the past year, and estimate the number of times you covered the following events. For example, if you cover a certain type of story on a weekly basis, then your response would be “52” on that item. If a single event fits under multiple categories, you can count that event more than once.

- 1 Number of times responding to an assignment involving an injured or dead child?
- 2 Number of times responding to an assignment involving mass casualties?
- 3 Number of times responding to an assignment involving a motor vehicle accident?
- 4 Number of times responding to an assignment involving an airplane accident?
- 5 Number of times responding to an assignment in which people are hurt or killed in a fire?
- 6 Number of times responding to an assignment involving a war zone?
- 7 Number of times responding to an assignment involving a subject’s life-threatening illness?
- 8 Number of times responding to an assignment involving murder?
- 9 Number of times responding to an assignment involving physical assault within the family?
- 10 Number of times responding to an assignment involving physical assault outside the family?
- 11 Number of times responding to an assignment involving sexual assault?
- 12 Number of times responding to an assignment involving torture, kidnapping?
- 13 Number of times responding to an assignment in which people are hurt or killed in a natural disaster?
- 14 Number of times responding to an assignment involving other types of events in which people are hurt or killed?

Next, please answer yes or no to the following questions, still keeping the time frame of the past year.

15 Did you cover any of the events listed above “at the scene?”

16 Have you responded to several similar assignments listed above within the same week?

17 Were you ever physically attacked while covering an assignment?

18 Were you ever verbally threatened while covering an assignment?

19 Have you received injuries due to covering an assignment?

20 Did you ever witness someone hurt or killed while covering an assignment?

21 Have you ever personally announced news of death to relatives/friends of the victim while on assignment?

22 Did you ever witness a particularly gruesome scene while covering an assignment?

23 Have you responded to an assignment in which the victim/perpetrator was someone you knew?